CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I.—The highest bidder to be the buyer, and should any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the lots in dispute shall at the option of the auctioneer, be immediately put up again and re-sold. The auctioneer reserves the right to consolidate two or more lots at his discretion, and to fix a reserve price on any or either of the lots, and also reserves the right to bid up to such reserve price or prices by himself or his agent.
- II.—No person to advance less than one shilling at each bidding above £2 two shillings and sixpence; and so on in proportion, or less or more at the discretion of the auctioneer, nor to retract a bidding.
- III.—The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode and to pay down five shillings in the £ as a deposit and part payment for each lot, in default of which the lot or lots so purchased to be put up again and re-sold.
- IV.—The lots must be taken away at the purchaser's expense on Friday, March 7th, before 4 p.m., and the purchase-money must be paid to the auctioneers before the delivery or handing the same over to the purchaser, in default of which they will not hold themselves responsible if the lot or lots be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed. In cases where one buyer purchases more than one lot, the whole of the account of all the lots purchased must be paid for before any one lot can be handed over or delivered, and any sum paid by way of deposit shall be considered as having been paid as a deposit in respect of all lots purchased. Any damage caused to the premises or to any lots by removal or otherwise must be made good by the persons committing the same, principals being considered responsible for the acts of their servants.
- V.—The lots are sold with all faults, imperfections, and errors of description of any kind whatsoever, the auctioneers not being responsible for the correct description, genuineness or authenticity of, or any fault or defect in any lot; and making no warranty whatever. The auctioneers reserve the right of refusing any bidding or of withdrawing any lot from the sale.
- VI.—Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money deposited as part payment shall be forfeited, the lot or lots remaining uncleared after the time specified shall be re-sold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) by such second sale, together with all charges attending the same, shall be immediately made good by the defaulter or defaulters at the present sale, but without prejudice to the right of the auctioneers enforcing the contract made at the sale.

No Lots will be Transferred.

NO CHEQUES TAKEN.
